

SINTER/HIP EQUIPMENT FOR THE POWDER METAL PROCESS

By: F. X. Zimmerman/C. W. Smith

Autoclave Engineers, Inc.

Summary

Recent advances in equipment and process technologies make it possible to form powder metal parts by a variety of techniques. This paper describes the newest technique of combining sintering and HIPing equipment and its potential for processing materials. Sinter/HIP production capacities are discussed and processing costs are analyzed.